REQUEST FOR REINSTATEMENT OF APPLICATION TO PENDING CONDITION

Sir:

The undersigned has been advised today by telephone by the Examiner (Mr. Negash) that the present case is abandoned. This was not intended, since a Rule 53(d) CPA was filed on March 2, 1999 (within six months of the September 2, 1998 official action), together with the requisite application filing fee and three month extension request. It is respectfully requested that the present application be reinstated to pending condition.

The following papers are attached:

- (1) Copy of Rule 53(d) CPA application cover sheet filed March 2, 1999;
- (2) Copy of Supplemental Disclosure Statement, PTO 1449 and five references, filed March 2, 1999;

(3) Copy of the acknowledgement post indicating receipt of the above documents by the USPTO on March 2, 1999;

(4) Copy of both sides of the check submitted to the USPTO on March 2, 1999 in the amount of $1,630.00.

The undersigned certifies that the copies attached hereto are true copies of the documents submitted in the USPTO on March 2, 1999.

Abandonment of the present case is believed to be in error, and not the fault of the applicants. Reinstatement of the application to pending condition is accordingly respectfully requested.

It is believed that no petition or reinstatement fees are required to secure reinstatement of the case to pending condition. However, should it be determined otherwise (it is believed that that should not be the case), then it is requested that the present paper be treated as a Petition, and the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge our deposit account number 14-1140 for the requisite fees.

Respectfully submitted,

NIXON & VANDERHYE P.C.
